Kids' Food Basket

Kids' Food Basket is a nonprofit organization attacking childhood hunger to help young people learn and live well. We began over a decade ago by serving 125 kids each school day through our Sack Supper program and now serve nearly 7,500 kids each weekday in West Michigan. Sack Suppers are evening meals that provide a well-rounded nutritious meal —nutrition that's critical to the development of kids' brains and bodies. For more information visit kidsfood-basket.org

If you would like to make a tax deductible donation, you can write a check payable to either "Kids Food Basket " or "CHAT to the Future" and send it to school with your child.

Meet Andrew Mugabo

Andrew is 16 years old. His father died 9 years ago and his mother died 4 years ago. His elder brother had been taking care of his school fees, but when he could no longer afford to send Andrew to high school, he contacted CHAT to the Future in search of sponsorship. Looking at Andrew's grades, he is a promising student. When asked what he would like to become if given a chance to study, Andrew says he would like to be an engineer. Andrew now attends a boarding school thanks to the support of students like our Murray Lake third graders and the organization CHAT to the Future.
